Whitehall, May 20.

ON the 13th Inſtant the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland met at Edinburgh, and choſe for their Moderator Mr. Patrick Cuming. His Majeſty's Commiſſion to the Right Honourable the Earl of Leven was read, as was likewiſe his Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter to the Aſſembly. His Majeſty's High Commiſſioner made a Speech to the Aſſembly, which was anſwered on their Part by the Moderator, and a Committee was appointed to draw up a dutiful Anſwer to his Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter, which having been tranſmitted by the High Commiſſioner to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty, who was pleaſed to receive it very graciouſly.

His Majeſty's High Commiſſioner's Speech to the General Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

HIS Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter, ſuperſedes the Neceſſity of my aſſuring you, of the juſt Senſe he has of your ſteady Zeal and firm Attachment to his Perſon and Government, and his conſtant Reſolution to maintain the Rights and Privileges of the Church of Scotland as by Law eſtabliſhed; and you know well, that his fatherly Concern for your Happineſs, has at all Times far exceeded the warmeſt Expreſſions I could uſe in this Place.

His Majeſty's annual Bounty for reforming the Highlands and Iſlands, which he has again been graciouſly pleaſed to renew,—His Royal Patent granted to the Society for propagating the Chriſtian Knowledge,—His repeated Countenance given for eſtabliſhing a Fund for the Proviſion of the Widows and Children of Miniſters, &c.—are but a few of the many Inſtances, which every Member of this Houſe will readily recall, of his Majeſty's pious Care for the good of the Nation in general, and the Proſperity of this Church in particular:—Such continued Proofs of the Royal Favour, will, I perſuade myſelf, meet with all the dutiful Regards, which the moſt faithful Subjects owe to the beſt of Sovereigns; and it cannot fail, to heighten your reſpectful Senſe of his Majeſty's great Goodneſs, that he demands no other Return, but that Behaviour and Conduct, which is inſeparable from your own true Intereſt.

By obeying the Royal Call, you will purſue ſuch Meaſures as will at once—make the Nation,—the Church,—and yourſelves happy.—All the important Affairs under your preſent Diliberation, will be managed with that Candour and Prudence,—that Temper and Moderation, which ſhall prove both your Glory and your Strength;—and amidſt that Variety of Sentiments, which muſt take Place in every numerous Meeting, you will ſtill love as Brethren,—maintaining the Unity of the Spirit in the Bond of Peace.—This much may reaſonably be expected, from the Conduct of former Aſſemblies, which I have ſo often witneſſed with the greateſt Pleaſure, and I cannot omit obſerving, that the known Character of the honourable and reverend Members of this Aſſembly, with whom I have the Happineſs to be acquainted, lays the juſteſt Foundation for that Charity which thinketh no Evil, but hopeth all Things.

Your unſhaken Loyalty in the worſt of Times, and the noble Stand which you have ſo frequently and of late made, in Support of Liberty, againſt the lawleſs Abettors of Tyranny and Oppreſſion, has endeared you to every true Lover of our happy Conſtitution, and intitles you to the ſincereſt Congratulations on Account of the general Peace, ſo happily concluded, by the Bleſſing of God on his Majeſty's Arms and Councils.

Nothing remains, but to improve the Bleſſings of our preſent Tranquillity, for promoting the great Ends of Religion and Virtue, which are are the Stability, as well as the Glory of every Nation.—Thus ſhall you demonſtrate, to the Joy of your Friends, and the Conviction of your Enemies, that ſuch zealous Appearances for your King and Country, were the Effect of the moſt diſintereſted Regard to the publick Weal—Thus ſhall you act up to the Dignity of your Character—And thus ſhall all Men know, that you are indeed the Servants of Jeſus, whoſe Kingdom is not of this World.

And now—Right Reverend and Right Honourable,—permit me, e're I conclude, to expreſs the great Satisfaction, with which I received his Majeſty's Commands, to repreſent his ſacred Perſon in this Aſſembly, that I might have another Opportunity of declaring myſelf in this publick Manner, a true Son of the Church of Scotland, whoſe real Intereſt ſhall always be dearer to me than Life itſelf; — and from the hopeful Proſpect of being able to make ſuch Report of your Conduct and Proceedings, as ſhould further recommend you to the Royal Favour and Protection.

I ſhould be the moſt ingrateful of all Men, were I not highly ſenſible of the Honour and Reſpect put upon me by former Aſſemblies: — And as my Conduct has been uniform, and my Regard for the Welfare of the Church of Scotland, is, and I truſt my God will ever continue the ſame, I flatter myſelf this Aſſembly will honour me with the ſame Indulgence; — as nothing ſhall be wanting on my Part, to make it agreeable to the Members, and to bring it to a happy Concluſion.

The General Aſſembly's Anſwer to His Majeſty's moſt gracious Letter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE moſt gracious Letter, with which your Majeſty has been pleaſed to honour us, we received with that humble Reſpect and Gratitude, which become loyal Subjects, ſenſible of their Happineſs under the beſt of Sovereigns.

Nothing could afford us higher Satisfaction, than the Notice your Majeſty has condeſcended to take, of the Zeal of the Church of Scotland for the Proteſtant Succeſſion, and for the Support and Advancement of true Religion: Theſe, we have always been firmly perſuaded, are inſeparably connected together; and, if any thing can add to the Obligations we are under, to exert ourſelves for the Support of both, it is the continued Favour your Majeſty has been pleaſed to ſhow us, and your countenancing, by your Royal Authority, the General Aſſemblies of this Church.

As we ſhall always reckon it our Duty and our Honour, to lay ourſelves out in our Stations, for the Advancement of true Piety, Virtue and Loyalty; ſo, by the Divine Aſſiſtance, it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour, to purſue ſuch Meaſures, as will tend, in the moſt effectual Manner, to the Attainment of theſe valuable Ends.—The Aſſurances your Majeſty has pleaſed to give us, of your Reſolution to ſupport the Church of Scotland as by Law eſtabliſhed, in the Enjoyment of all its Rites and Privileges, we have always received with the moſt humble Thankfulneſs. —Every Renewal of theſe, we conſider as obliging us more ſtrongly to an inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government.—And the Experience we have had, on all Occaſions, of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, encourages us to have the firmeſt Reliance on your Royal Protection and Favour.

The Choice your Majeſty has again been pleaſed to make of the Earl of Leven to repreſent your Royal Perſon in this Aſſembly, is moſt acceptable to us.— His known Zeal, Affection and Fidelity, to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government— His ſteady Attachment to the Principles of the Church of Scotland— and Concern for her Proſperity — and the many Proofs we have had of his Abilities, for the Diſcharge of this important Truſt, do juſtly entitle him to our high Regard and Eſteem.

Your Majeſty's continuing your Royal Bounty, for the promoting the Knowledge of true Religion, and the ſuppreſſing of Popery in the Highlands and Iſlands of Scotland, we receive with the utmoſt Gratitude, as a freſh Teſtimony of your paternal Care for the Welfare and Happineſs of your Subjects; — and we look upon ourſelves under the ſtricteſt Ties, to employ it in ſuch Manner as may beſt anſwer the Purpoſe of ſo pious and charitable a Donation.

We are fully ſenſible, that the Advancement of true Religion and Piety is the great Deſign of our preſent Meeting; — and whilſt we have this conſtantly in our View, and behave ſuitably to our Characters; we promiſe ourſelves, that we ſhall be happy in your Majeſty's Approbation and Countenance.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt may long preſerve your Majeſty to be a Bleſſing to theſe Lands,— the Guardian of our Liberties Civil and Sacred,— and the Support of the Proteſtant Intereſt; — that he may bleſs the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, the Duke, the Princeſſes, and all the Branches of your Royal Family; that there may never be wanting one of your illuſtrious Houſe to fill the Throne of theſe Kingdoms to lateſt Ages; and that, after a long and happy Reign over a free and dutiful People, you may exchange an earthly for a heavenly Crown, are, and ſhall be the ſincere and hearty Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders met in this National Aſſembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Preſence, and at our Appointment, by Patrick Cuming, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 13, 1749.

Naples, April 22, N. S. The Court of Rome perſiſting not to deliver 36 Deſerters out of the King's Troops, who lately took Refuge at Benevento, the King has ordered a Detachment of 200 Men, under the Command of Chevalier Negroni, with Directions to join a large Number of the Militia, and to block up that Place, till the Pope cauſes the ſaid Deſerters to be reſtored. Laſt Week Cardinal Portocarrero had an Audience of Leave of their Majeſties at Portici, on his Departure for the Court of Spain; and accordingly on the 15th embarked on the Malteſe Ship of War St. John for Alicant. The Pirates from Barbary have of late ſo infeſted theſe Seas, that they entirely interrupt the Commerce of the King's Subjects, from the frequent Captures they make of our trading Veſſels; to prevent which, four of the King's Half Gallies, and a Tartan Cruizer, fitted out at the Expence of the Merchants of this City, are ordered to ſail from this Port to cruize upon theſe Coaſts. The King has made a Promotion of 12 Lieutenants and 12 Enſigns, to compleat the new Regiment of Dragoons called the Prince Royal. On the 19th Inſtant, ſome Soldiers of the Marine Regiment, having in a Quarrel killed one of thoſe of the Regiment Royal Macedone, it occaſioned ſuch Animoſity amongſt the Soldiers of each Regiment, that making it a common Cauſe, Parties of them immediately joined together, attacked each other where-ever they met, and occaſioned ſuch Diſturbance, that in divers Parts of the City they were obliged to ſhut up the Gates and Shops, and to ſend Detachments both of Horſe and Foot to oppoſe them, to avoid greater Inconveniencies, ſeveral on each Side being killed and diſabled.

Rome April 26, N. S. The Pope, upon the Menaces of the Court of Naples, and the diſpatching a Detachment of Troops to block up Benevento, on account of the Refuge taken by ſome Deſerters in that City, to avoid farther Diſagreements, has conſented to deliver them up, agreeable to the Convention ſubſiſting between the reſpective Courts. And on the 21ſt Inſtant, a particular Congregation of Cardinals was ſummoned before the Pope, upon the earneſt Sollicitations of the King of Naples, to ſuppreſs any future Refuge to Deſerters out of his Troops at Benevento. The Pope is extreamly uneaſy at the Incurſions of the Barbary Pirates upon the Coaſts of the See of Rome, from the Conſequences that might attend it, ſhould they attempt to make a Deſcent there; many of theſe Pirates frequently cruize off Civita Vecchia, and in ſome Meaſure keep that Port blocked up, in Sight of which they have made ſeveral Captures, which they carry to Leghorn.

Florence, May 2, N. S. Laſt Week an Edict was publiſhed in this City, by which the Emperor ſuppreſſes and limits ſeveral Privileges which the former Great Dukes of Tuſcany had granted to the Barons and other Tuſcan Feudatories. On the 25th paſt arrived in this City from Turin, Count Richecourt and his Lady, the late Miniſter from the Empreſs Queen to the King of Sardinia, on his Way to Vienna, and from thence to the Court of London, as Miniſter from the Empreſs Queen. On the 30th M. Herard, Major-General and Commander of the Troops at Leghorn, arrived here from that City, to take upon him the Command of the Troops in Tuſcany, in the Room of General Salin, who has obtained Leave to take a Journey to Tranſilvania on his domeſtick Affairs.

Madrid, May 12, N. S. The Duke of Hueſcar arrived here the 5th Inſtant from his Embaſſy at Paris, and went immediately to wait upon their Catholick Majeſties at Aranjuez, where he met with a moſt gracious Reception. The Captain Generalſhip of Andaluzia, vacant by the Death of the Count de Roideville, has been given to Lieutenant General Don Sebaſtian de Eſlaba (who ſo bravely defended Carthagena in the late War) at preſent Captain General and Viceroy of the Kingdom of Santa Fée in America, where he is to be ſucceeded by Lieutenant General Don Joſeph Pizarro, who is preparing to ſet out for Cadiz, in order to embark by the firſt Occaſion. They write from Aranjuez, that Cardinal Portocarrero, Conde de Palma, and Grandee of Spain, is ſoon expected there from Rome.
